LIFE MEMBERSHIP IN PTA

On May 20, 1976 at the Appomattox Primary School PTA meeting, Mrs. Virginia Cyrus was awarded the Life Membership Award in the Parent-Teachers Association. Mrs. Cyrus has completed 23 years in public school education. Her teaching experiences have been in Martinsville, Lovingston, Norwood, and Appomattox.

Each year the primary School PTA promotes this service project. Teachers are honored for their exceptional services and simultaneously monies are made available to a scholarship fund which promotes teaching as a career.

The Appomattox Primary School PTA is happy to make this award to such a dedicated teacher of second year students.
